

PRESS RELEASE

No buying. No selling. Just the trade.

Print Swap

A non-commercial platform where photographers and visual artists swap gallery-quality physical prints.

Live on iOS

“Last year, staring at an empty space on my wall, it struck me that I should have swapped more prints with photographers over the years. Like most photographers, I want to be surrounded by work that inspires and moves me, and that’s very seldom my own work.”

Photographs were once objects: prints you made, kept in boxes, put on walls. Print Swap makes that exchange simple again, because good images deserve more than a few seconds in a feed.

Founder, Print Swap

UPLOAD

Add prints from your portfolio. See what other artists are offering.

THE EXCHANGE

Offer a print. If they say yes, both go into production.

DIRECT TRADE

No sales.
No commissions.
No popularity contests.

FULFILMENT

Every print is made to gallery standard, then sent straight to the artist.

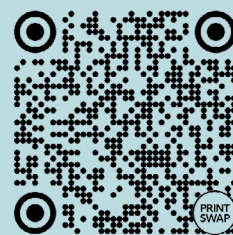

NOTES FOR EDITORS

Print Swap soft launched in May 2026 and is now open worldwide. Nearly 300 photographers and artists have joined so far. Prints are produced and shipped from three hubs, in London, Hamburg and New York.

Print Swap was founded by photographer Sam Faulkner (samfaulkner.co.uk).
